mittee of management which will secure the ministers a working major-ity. The chief, immediate danger of Iriction on the Labor side will be the question of the right to work. scheme is as yet formulated which will not aggravate the evils which all denot aggravate the evils which all desire to remove! The action of the Tory party in recklessly promising work for all at higher wages if they were returned to power has given a danger out impetus to legislation in a socialistic direction. The question of the responsibility of the House of Lords has been taken up by the friends of the peers. But it is destribled repeating and of the poers. but it is a deathbed recentance, and on scheme will be entertained by the Liberals which does not give at least a fair chance to the Liberals to obtain a majority, however small, in the upa majority, h
